

Miranda De Los Santos

The Rio Grande River has dried up long before summer has begun and now a data center is being proposed for the state of New Mexico. This is not in the best interests of our people or our communities. The duty of our government is to find ethical and stable solutions to our job crisis and not sell out to the highest bidding corporations. Like so many other residents in New Mexico, I do not support Project Jupiter.