

Layla Wray

Living in Memphis with the new construction of Elon musks ai monster has already been hell on earth. The summers are unbearable, the stench is growing, and my drinking water is turning brown. Not only will Project Jupiter destroy our world it will destroy our moral kindness to our planet with it. We have an obligation to take care of the earth, but we don't