

Devin Collins

no data centers in New Mexico. We live in a desert. We don't need an industry propped up by government to waste resources forcing another harmful product on people who don't want or need it. Keep NM free of this garbage. They are not good neighbors. Build more rehabs, more transitional housing. This is not nimby-ism. This is an environmental catastrophe and we don't need it.