

Marcela Mendoza

I am a New Mexico resident who is deeply concerned about Project Jupiter and its potential impacts on our health, air quality, and limited water resources. New Mexico is already facing significant challenges in these areas, and we must protect our natural resources for current and future generations.