

David Brown

Please do not grant permission for any part of this project to go any further. This project is predicted to create as much pollution as Albuquerque and Las Cruces combined. Along with the water this project is scheduled to use, we're looking at an ecological disaster. Corporate leadership has already stated that the AI industry is more important than humanity itself. We are coming to a turning point in human history. Please choose humanity over corporate profit.