

I strongly oppose the construction of Project Jupiter in Doña Ana County and anywhere in New Mexico. New Mexico's environment and those who have stewarded it for generations do not deserve this treatment. Our fragile ecosystem is already running on empty and cannot take more water depletion. More jobs are not worth the irreparable damage this would do to the environment.