

James Laws

My name is James Laws. I am a New Mexico resident and I oppose approval of the permit.

Approval of the permit would mean approval of a vast increase in the level of air pollution in our state. The attempt to greenwash this project and to quickly push it through without citizen input is shameful. The tech bros have a motto: "move fast and break things." Let's say no this time. We need to slow down and engage in democracy.