

Hannah Le

Santa Teresa Elementary and High School are located within five miles of this project site. 96% of students at the high school are Hispanic. There are also daycare centers located within miles of this site. This is an environmental injustice to these children who are especially vulnerable to the health impacts of NOX, CO, and VOCs.