

William Caudle

As a resident of New Mexico and someone with a thirty-year-plus tech background, I urge the Department to reject the permit for this data center. Our water, electricity and air will all be impacted, with zero benefit for New Mexico residents.