

BETO N/A

nobody needs this much room other than ai which is already damaging enough. to build this data center means so many go without water, horrible turnout for the climate, and increases in cost of living as well as decreased standard of living for low income families in the area. stop project jupiter.