

Paul Swanson

This is a terrible idea for our watersheds. I am opposed to this project do not want to risk the complete depleting of our aquifers. The data shows the short-sightedness of such endeavors for the local economy and the massive downside to our natural resources. We do not need this project to move forward.