

Serenity Ruiz

The health and wellbeing of our communities and future generations relies on our ability to protect the already depleted resources we have today. Every summer gets hotter and dryer, our air quality is one of the worst in the country and a data center is the nail in the coffin environmentally. We all deserve clean water and air, which we need to survive. I hope that humanity outweighs greed in not only our state but our country.