

Diana Lestz

This should absolutely not be allowed. Our state is in a drought and the states nearby have been fighting for years over water rights. As a New Mexico resident I strongly disagree with this company being allowed to build this data center and their business practices have already proved abysmal across the state, particularly their fraudulent signature activity in Albuquerque but also the way they convinced Doña Ana county to approve the project. It is not right.