

Anonymous Anonymous

Please stop Project Jupiter. It's very dangerous for our planet and environment, and it can cause severe environmental damage to our planet as this impacts our climate system and our population as well. We don't need more data centers for ai, which uses the same water we need for survival. Unfortunately, stopping this project won't solve our climate problem at this instant but it will help us save time and help our planet get better at least a bit.