

April Jaquez

I am writing to express my distrust in Project Jupiter, which I believe their claims of significant benefits for our community are false and am strongly against a data center in our communities