

Cameron Maughan

I believe this permit should be denied. From the beginning of this process, the public has largely been left out. It was rushed through the county commission without proper due diligence and the process has been shrouded in secrecy. This was by design, Oracle knows that data centers are hugely unpopular and damaging to their surrounding environment. More oversight and review needs to take place before any permits are given. I hope the state makes the right choice and denies this permit request.