

briana lebron

AI and data centers will destroy our planet as we know it . data centers have the option to use dirty water to cool their systems yet they continue to choose clean drinking water . and what does that say for the reality of new mexico . having this data center will deplete quality of life in many aspects but most importantly air quality .