

Marina Perez

I urge the New Mexico Environment Department to reject the air quality permit for Project Jupiter and any additional investment in advertising, planning, or proposing this project. The corporations pushing for this project will continue to underestimate the impact a massive data center will have on the immediate and long-term health, wellbeing and safety of NM communities. We do not have the medical infrastructure nor abundance of natural resources for this project to operate. Please yield to your constituents and reject Project Jupiter.