

Aiden Morales

As a New Mexican, I am firmly AGAINST granting Project Jupiter an air quality permit. They have already proven themselves to be untrustworthy regarding the amount of water they are projected to use, and our state already struggles with water limitations. While we cannot predict droughts, we can ensure that water is not excessively wasted to promote disaster preparedness.