

Patrick Caulfield

The lack of transparency and possible impacts on the community tells me this is no good except for the developer (Oracle). I do not understand how the Dona Ana County Commissioners stepped up on this with public hearing and complete disclosure of the terms on the agreement.