

Rachel Joe

New Mexico does not need to be the state to house this data center. Regardless of use of gas or water, this data center will negatively affect our planet and our state. We DO NOT WANT IT! This thing cannot be built. This will not be good for New Mexicans. It will only provide temporary high paying jobs but ultimately will cost us more than what it will pay to be built.