

Amie Yansane

The public should be given an additional 60 days to review and comment on the air quality permit so community members can participate equitably. Project Jupiter is an exploitative project that will jeopardize the health of the community and ecosystem surrounding it.