

Anonymous Anonymous

We do we need all this? We're completely fine without ai. If anything, let the public decide, we should have 60 days to review it. And why is this even being approved? Does NMED not realise how much pollution this'll increase? It's stupid. If this permit is for some reason not denied, then there should be a PUBLIC hearing in English and a Spanish, with the option to participate virtually.