

Kat Porter

The permit needs to be denied. We are already past the point of no return on many climate change actions. Further desecration of the land will only result in loss of life. Additionally, the environmental racism of building water /energy draining data centers in Black and Brown communities is staggering. Halt Project Jupiter.