

Kristy miera

I find that building a data center in New Mexico to be an absolute nightmare for not just our land but for our people. I urge you to stop permitting and any construction of data centers in New Mexico.