

Jessica Barfield

Nothing says trustworthy like changing the name of a massive data center right before a deadline! I oppose this project because of the massive environmental impact it will have on our state. Why do we need this? It's not just for weird flyers and awful AI artists... Get out of here with your weird evil villain projects.