

Gina Shorten

There needs to be further investigation into these plans and companies. Their inconsistency breeds a sense of corruption. I stand with the land and not the corporations and demand that a thorough investigation be made with and any proposals be evaluated by several different ecological organizations who are genuinely looking out for the futures of the land and the peoples of New Mexico.