

Marlene Bremner

I am opposed to Project Jupiter's plans to build a massive data center that is only here to extract our limited resources while making a profit at our expense. These data centers are destroying rural and disadvantaged communities through noise and water pollution, and draining already limited water supplies. Don't let them ruin our beautiful state! It's not worth it.