

Mimi black

my issue with data centers is not only is it destroying our environment so drastically, we have already done irreversible damage to our home, if we continue destroying the beautiful world mother nature has created we will have no where to go. If we didn't need data centers this big than, than why now? Why fuel generative AI, why fuel apps destroying our home. stop the building of data centers.