

Lewis Cano

Please do not build this or any other data center in our state. Our resources are too scarce to just give them away to massive companies who will suck us dry then leave us to hang.

Whatever "sustainable" designs they present are a lie. Their motive is profit and they will do it at the expense of our communities and our people without remorse or care.