

Anonymous Anonymous

Im from Indiana, and here we care about our environment. People protest non stop to keep data centers from opening because they are causing major harm to everything in it. I want to live in a world where AI has fallen a long long time ago instead of it taking over and rising beyond anyone could've ever imagined, not only because of an inevitable uprising. But because of how it will affect our Planet, our Water, our Food, and most importantly... Ourselves.