

Jesse Camden

project Jupiter is something that should NOT be completed. It takes up too much water and there are many more alternatives to ai. If we ever did use ai it should be used sustainably according to our ecosystem/climate. There are many other worse things that take up our water such as monopolies of corporations. However, we should try and prevent the worsening of our home before tackling bigger issues.