

Josh Roper

I oppose this micro grid. The air quality in New Mexico is too important and we don't need more pollution than there already is. This is a short sighted solution and if this project can't run on wind or solar exclusively then it should be canceled all together.