

Jack Mahoney

I was approached by Project Jupiter workers and asked what I thought about clean water in New Mexico and helping the homeless. Absolutely nothing about a data center. I gave them my email without knowing what my support was actually for. I absolutely do not support Project Jupiter in any way brining the center to New Mexico. The lack of transparency should be a sign the destruction and resource usage the project will entail.