

Julian Plaza

The people of the United States are having our voices silenced we do not want an ai data center we want better living affordable healthcare and groceries but no we get this waste of space that's probably gonna be used to spy on the very same people it claims to "protect"