

Carly Baca

I, Carly Baca, a community member of Albuquerque, email to inform you I oppose allowing further expansion of data centers and their working parts. The impact a center at this scale is detrimental to the wildlife and our community members that live in surrounding area. Water and air which are earth commodities, should not be polluted and are protected.