

Rosa Soriano

I strongly oppose the proposed Yucca Growth Infrastructure (YGI) Microgrid/Data Center project in Doña Ana County due to concerns about air pollution and public health impacts. This project could worsen local air quality through emissions, construction pollution, and increased industrial activity in our community. Residents deserve clean air and a healthy environment, and I urge the Department to deny this permit application.