

Maria Anonymous

Please I urge NMED to to deny the development of the AI data center, it does more damage than it helps us. Our climate is already in such a fragile state that we should care and protect it, not harm it. We cannot breathe nor drink data, and there's truly no need for more data centres. Please reconsider this, for this generation and future generations. Show more love and care to our climate