

Jeremy Salisbury

I am writing to express my concern and general opposition to Project Jupiter, as it is already in violation energy usage promises, has failed to be transparent in any dealings, is an economic gamble that will likely cost many resources while at best contributing a handful of jobs, and is backed by corporations that do not have New Mexico's best interests at heart.

Sincerely,
Jeremy Salisbury