

Darryn Borrego

If the data center brings more pros to this county, rather than cons, I would say that it is okay to construct it. If the company is working with the people to ease their worries than that is the right mindset. Water, jobs, and environmental worries should be something this company takes very seriously. But in the end I am for it.

Sincerely,
Darryn Borrego