

Megan Sweeney

This is a net-negative to the community and especially the environment. No data center has done any community any good anywhere, except for the rich who don't even live there. I'm greatly opposed to this and urge consideration to block the project.