

anonymous anonymous

we have to think about the future generations and how they're going to live if we have no resources left such as water :(and i heard this is going to be near an elementary school? we cant have this pollution affecting kids and the elderly centers nearby as well. the air quality permit must be denied and the heat in our atmosphere is rising slowly, but surely...