

Cristina Tadeo

All permits for this destructive / extractive project must be denied. New Mexico's fragile ecosystems and current drought conditions cannot handle this. Indigenous communities cannot be the site of this destruction, and NM did not ask for this. Stop this and all future data center development in our state.