

Joshua Marcum

As a New Mexican I strive to conserve the water and power I use, scarce resources in this state. It is ludicrous that this permit would be approved allowing a corporation to steal these precious resources while polluting our environment and bringing little gain to our state. This is a no brainer, do not approve the permit