

nathaly contreras

AI is taking over and it's wasting our water this is unacceptable from AI data centers and someone needs to speak up, once the water is gone everyone is going to be crying about our water source but didn't take action when we had a choice. this has to stop and we are the voice.