

James Conant

I do not support the wasting of local resources and polluting of the environment for the sake of corporate profits and mass surveillance. Government officials pushing this project should be shamed and removed from their positions of authority. No amount of propaganda lies will cover the stench project Jupiter.