

Cameron Walters

We do not need more AI data centers! Not only is it incredibly inconsiderate for our communities that depend on local sources of water and land, but it's also unnecessary. As collecting data for AI usage invades privacy and isn't being utilized enough due to the increasing human drawback from artificial intelligence.