

Anonymous Anonymous

All big corporations and AI data centers are taking up the vital resources we need, we are estimated to have irreversible climate changes in as much as 3 years, would you like to suffer in agony for the rest of your life? Because that's what many people living by unwanted data centers are already living like. They are running out of fresh resources and there are no backups, we need to stop building these destructive data centers