

Jess Soza

I am adamantly opposed to the permitting of "Project Jupiter". The covert and forceful way that this project has come this far is outrageous and offensive. This threatens the health and well being of residents, drains an already disastrously depleted water table, and strains a power system for no good reason. This much data is never worth the sacrifices it is demanding. Please develop some common sense and moral integrity. This is a travesty.