

Emma Thorp

I oppose the construction of Project Jupiter. The southwest is already struggling with the effects of climate change. Outside of the massive amounts of water this project would require, it's annual energy use would have detrimental effects not just on the local scale but worldwide. Do not build Project Jupiter!